

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL DATA

Lester Lance Lollar, DC
1255 Liberty St.
Redding, CA 96001
(530) 246-2467

EDUCATION

Shasta College, completed chiropractic school prerequisites, January 1986

Palmer College of Chiropractic-West; graduated with Doctor of Chiropractic degree, June 1989

POSTGRADUATE EDUCATION

Completed the Certificate Chiropractic Sports Physician program through Los Angeles College, 1994

Numerous seminars on athletic performance enhancement and injury treatment as well as industrial medicine including patient management procedures and administrative concerns

Compulsory continuing education hours which has included a multitude of topics

PROFESSIONAL/WORK EXPERIENCE

Shasta Orthopaedics: September 2012 to Present

Lollar Chiropractic: January 2001 to September 2012; sole proprietor

Redding Chiropractic Clinic: November 1992 to January 2001; performed all aspects of chiropractic evaluation and treatment as an independent contractor.

Professional mountain bike racer: 1989 to 1992

LICENSURE

California State Board of Chiropractic Examiners July 1990 (active)

BOARDS

Diplomate National Board of Chiropractic Examiners 1989

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

California Chiropractic Association (active); past vice president of the North State chapter

California Society of Industrial Medicine and Surgery (former)

RESEARCH

Clinical investigation site for Microlight 830 cold laser; participated in FDA clearance trial

CONSULTING

Chiropractic consultant for C.A.R.E certified work hardening program; duties included weekly multidisciplinary panel discussions of workers compensation injury cases (past)

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Team chiropractic for Enterprise High School wrestling team (past); provided injury prevention and management as well as training programming

Provided injury assessment and management at various area sporting events

Bicycle helmet safety spokesperson (past); included speaking at Redding area schools

Speaker on mountain bike riding technique and training

AWARDS

Voted "Best of the North State" 2010, 2011, and 2014 in the chiropractic category

"Most Dedicated Doctor" awarded by American Medical Response Corp. 1996